OUR CO-BRANDS

Bow-Wow
STAINLESS STEEL PET BOWLS

PRAVEEN KUMAR JAIN, PARTNER, FIRST GENERATION

With over four decades of experience in the stainless steel utensils industry, he started his business journey in 1985, initially serving reputed merchant exporters across India before successfully expanding into direct exports. With extensive expertise in manufacturing and production operations, he has played a pivotal role in strengthening the company's operational foundation. Through consistent leadership and dedication, he has established a respected legacy within the industry. His vision is to expand the company's global presence and build a strong, sustainable organization.

ASHISH JAIN, PARTNER, SECOND GENERATION

He has over two decades of hands-on experience in the stainless steel cutlery and utensils industry. He is closely involved in factory operations, quality control, and process optimization, ensuring consistent quality and international standards. With substantial exposure to global markets, he specializes in serving retail chains, private-label brands, and HoReCa customers. His approach combines technical expertise, disciplined production planning, and a strong focus on buyer expectations, enabling reliable, scalable, and market-ready solutions while fostering long-term business partnerships.

ANKUR JAIN, PARTNER, SECOND GENERATION

He brings over two decades of experience in the stainless steel utensils industry and plays a key role in driving the company's growth and international expansion. He manages manufacturing operations, product development, quality systems, and product packaging. Experienced in working with buying agents and business partners, he actively participates in and guides the company's international sales and marketing initiatives. With a forward-looking approach, he emphasizes ethical business practices and positions the company as a preferred global supplier.

ANKIT JAIN, PARTNER, SECOND GENERATION

He has over a decade of experience in international marketing and sales in the stainless steel utensils industry, with strong expertise in cross-cultural and diverse business environments. Known for his strategic thinking and attention to detail, he structures the company's marketing direction, e-commerce growth, digitalization, and market expansion initiatives. He works closely with importers, retailers, distributors, and stock buyers, while also being actively involved in factory operations, innovation, and sustainable growth strategies. He is committed to driving the company's long-term growth, global success, and future-ready leadership.
